“ScribbleMonster plays a meld of punk and pop that parents can appreciate, with lyrics that will leave youngsters singing along long after the show is over.”

-Northwest Indiana Times

ABOUT SCRIBBLEMONSTER

James Dague (ScribbleJim) is the creator of ScribbleMonster, a children’s book and music series which introduces kids to the joy of creating and has been acclaimed by the likes of National Public Radio and Parenting Magazine. ScribbleMonster’s music can be heard nationally on XM, Sirius, and independent children’s radio. Jim’s bandmate, Jayne Saniat (ScribbleJayne), is a certified educator and brings another voice, personality and additional opportunities for interaction to their live performances. In addition to their many years of creating, teaching and performing music, comedy and theater, both Jim and Jayne have experience parenting children with a wide range of talents and abilities. This experience is evident in their performances. The ScribbleMonster band is comprised of five veteran Chicago-area performers clocking in with a total of 15 children of their own.

AVAILABLE PROGRAMS INCLUDE:

Creavite Musical Playtime with ScribbleMonster

ScribbleMonster presents a high-energy, play-along rock concert for the whole family. These pioneers of the “kindie rock” scene have appeared on stage at Lollapalooza and were dubbed “possibly the edgiest kid’s band on the scene today” by Christopher Healy in his book, Pop Culture. Like all great rock shows, ScribbleMonster’s performance encourages audience participation and opportunities for creative expression. Available as a solo, duo, trio or full-band performance.

You Write The Songs: An Introduction to Songwriting, Creativity, and Sharing Ideas for Young Writers

In this program ScribbleJim and ScribbleJayne inspire attendees to share ideas, collaborate in writing songs, and give examples of the creative process by demonstrating how an idea becomes a song. ScribbleMonster’s presentation and materials stimulate creative expression while building confidence and showcasing each child’s personal abilities.

Special Fun with Special Needs

ScribbleMonster believes “all kids are creative equal” and that children learn by having fun and by expressing themselves through the arts. The ScribbleMonster approach to music and other activities centers on what children can do, rather than focusing on what they can’t. By presenting in a non-restrictive format that encourages each child’s own unique creative participation, ScribbleMonster’s open-ended approach to music validates each child’s efforts and builds upon their success in developmentally appropriate ways. Sing, think, play, dance and get creative with ScribbleMonster!

Preschool Music Classes and Presentations with ScribbleJim & ScribbleJayne

ScribbleMonster’s weekly creative play music classes introduce preschoolers to music and movement. Through play we discover basic music terms and principles, play rhythm instruments and explore composition. Single, in-house field trip presentations for preschools are also available.

Holidays, Special Events and Themes

We pride ourselves on our ability to incorporate your themes into our performances, songs and activity pages. Past themes have included: Back to School, Birthdays, Bugs, Character Counts, Christmas, Columbus Day, Easter, Foods, Halloween, Healthy Lifestyle, Mardi Gras, New Year’s Eve, Pets, Pirates, Sports, TV Turnoff, Valentine’s and Veterans Day. We look forward to adding your summer reading program theme (or anything else you can dream up) to our list.
